

SHEP Staff

What staff does the Project have? Staff currently working in the Project hold the following positions: Jim Sheehan: Director
Mary Mangan: Senior Training and Development Officer - Personal Development
Liam McCarthy: Senior Training and Development Officer - Community Development
Pat McCarthy: Therapeutic Support Specialist - (Coiscéim Coordinator)
Fiona Devlin: Therapeutic Support Specialist - (Advocacy)
Deirdre Lillis: Advocate (Cork Advocacy Service)
Paul Doherty: International Partnership Programme Officer
Helen Godsell: Financial Administrator
Geraldine Flanagan: Programme Administrator
Denise Gregg: Support Worker
Carmel Slattery: Support Worker
The Project's Core Training Programme is delivered by a team of 45 trainers, the Community Training Programme by a team of more than 100 registered community tutors, and the Coisceim Counselling Programme by a panel of 55 psychotherapists, all of whom work on a contract basis.